

We open on our featured streamer, AriGameplays, wearing a cute white and pink outfit, which matches the pink Razer Kraken Kitty Edition headset she's wearing.

She bobs and sways to a cute, upbeat dance track.

Through a series of playful gestures, she begins to perform the #RazerKrakenKitty dance—clawing playfully at the camera, shaping and moving her hands like paws, before flapping her hands above her head like cat ears.

She finishes on a cute paw pose and winks at the camera.
