

Looking to find the right talent for your next project?

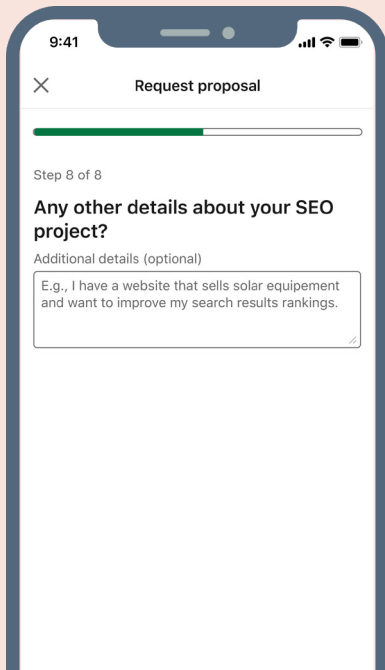

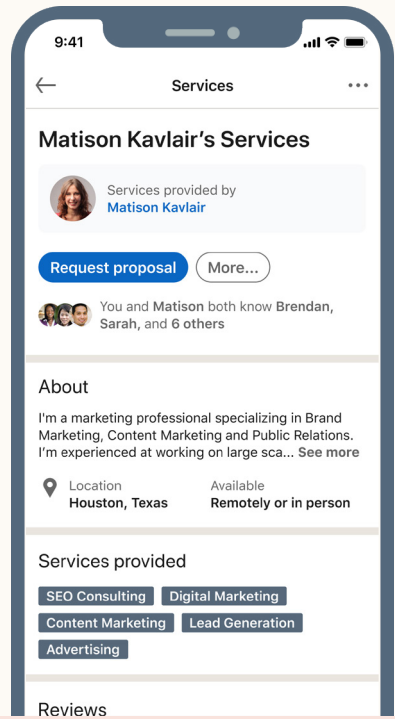

Here's how to discover the right provider for you

Type in the service you're looking for (such as marketing, career coaching, or design) on LinkedIn.com

Browse providers and discover the right person to help you with your project by looking at their profile, Service Page, and reviews.

Request a proposal from providers that best match what you're looking for

You can check your project status by going to "My Items" and selecting "My Projects". We'll also notify you when new proposals are available.
