

Information on the Realization of the Tax Strategy by Emirates (Rządowa Spółka Handlowa) Oddział w Polsce (Hereinafter: 'The Company').

1. Introduction

The following information is provided in compliance with the requirements of Article 27c of the CIT Act as it applies to Emirates Branch in Poland which is a member of the Emirates group.

The Company has committed to conducting the Emirates group strategy. For this reason, the document has been prepared on the basis of a group-wide tax strategy.

The Emirates group (the "Group") comprises Emirates and dnata. Emirates is a global airline, serving 149 airports in 78 countries from its hub in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. Dnata is one of the largest combined air services providers in the world and the largest travel management company in the UAE. Its main activities are the provision of cargo and ground handling, catering and travel services.

The aim of the Tax Strategy is to reflect and support the business of the Group by ensuring full compliance with tax legislation and regulations in the countries where the Group has operations, mitigating tax risks in a timely and cost effective manner and by ensuring a sustainable tax rate.

The tax profile of Emirates is predominantly determined by the application of bilateral tax treaties concluded between the UAE and the various countries. These tax treaties, in general, follow the basic principle laid down in article 8 of the OECD Model Treaty, based on which profits derived from the operation of aircraft in international traffic are exclusively taxable in the country of residence of the airliner. In January 2022, the UAE Ministry of Finance announced that it will introduce Federal Corporate Income Tax (CIT) on the net profits of businesses in the UAE, the country of residence of Emirates. Emirates will become subject to CIT from 1 April 2024. Alternatively, countries may exempt the profits derived from international aviation traffic on the basis of reciprocity. In the situation where there is no tax treaty or reciprocal exemption, the profit is in general determined on a net income basis via generally accepted net income apportionment formulas.

Tax is one of the elements the Group takes into account in its commercial and economic activities, while the various businesses within the Group may also respond to available tax incentives and tax exemptions.

The Group focusses on being fully compliant with the applicable tax rules and principles in the various countries in which it operates. This includes the preparation and filing of tax returns in time and the payment of all due taxes in time in accordance with the relevant tax laws and regulations (including international standards such as those issued by the OECD, bilateral tax treaties for the avoidance of double taxation and specific agreements concluded between the Group and the relevant authorities of specific countries).
