

iPod touch Info

iPod touch User Guide Before using iPod touch, review the user guide at help.apple.com/ipod-touch. You can also use Apple Books to download the guide (where available) or, to view the user guide on iPod touch, use the Safari bookmark. Retain documentation for future reference.

Safety and Handling See “Safety, handling, and support” in the iPod touch User Guide.

Exposure to Radio Frequency Energy On iPod touch, go to Settings > General > About > Legal > RF Exposure. Or go to www.apple.com/legal/rfexposure.

Battery Don't attempt to replace the iPod touch battery yourself—you may damage the battery, which could cause overheating, fire, and injury. The lithium-ion battery in your iPod touch should be serviced or recycled by Apple or an authorized service provider, and must be recycled or disposed of separately from household waste. Dispose of batteries according to your local environmental laws and guidelines. For information about Apple lithium-ion batteries and battery service and recycling, go to www.apple.com/batteries/service-and-recycling.

Avoiding Hearing Damage To prevent possible hearing damage, do not listen at high volume levels for long periods. More information about sound and hearing is available online at www.apple.com/sound and in “Important safety information” in the iPod touch User Guide.

Medical Device Interference iPod touch contains magnets that may interfere with medical devices. See “Important safety information” in the iPod touch User Guide.

Apple One-Year Limited Warranty Summary Apple warrants the included hardware product and accessories against defects in materials and workmanship for one year from the date of original retail purchase. Apple does not warrant against normal wear and tear, nor damage caused by accident or abuse. To obtain service, call Apple or visit an Apple Store or an Apple Authorized Service Provider—available service options are dependent on the country in which service is requested and may be restricted to the original country of sale. Call charges and international shipping charges may apply, depending on the location. Subject to the full terms and detailed information on obtaining service available at www.apple.com/legal/warranty and support.apple.com, if you submit a valid claim under this warranty, Apple will either repair, replace, or refund your iPod touch at its own discretion. Warranty benefits are in addition to rights provided under local consumer laws. You may be required to furnish proof of purchase details when making a claim under this warranty.

For Australian Consumers: Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.

Apple Pty Ltd, PO Box A2629, Sydney South, NSW 1235. Tel: 133-622.

For Brazilian Consumers: Warranty benefits are in addition to rights provided under local consumer laws, except for the 1-year warranty that already comprises the full term of legal warranty provided by the Brazilian consumer defense code/regulations.
