

HomePod

Review the HomePod User Guide before using HomePod. Go to support.apple.com/guide/homepod.

WARNING: Failure to follow these safety instructions could result in fire, electric shock, or other injury or damage to HomePod or other property. Read all safety information and operating instructions before using HomePod.

Important Safety Instructions

- Read these instructions. Keep these instructions. Heed all warnings. Follow all instructions.
- Do not use HomePod near water or where it might be exposed to dripping or splashing. Keep HomePod away from all sources of liquid, such as drinks, washbasins, bathtubs, shower stalls, swimming pools, spas, and so on. Do not place any object filled with liquid on top of it. Do not expose HomePod to moisture, dampness, or wet weather, such as rain, snow, or fog.
- Clean HomePod gently and only with a dry cloth.
- Do not block any ventilation openings on HomePod.
- Use in accordance with Apple's instructions.
- Unplug HomePod during lightning storms or when unused for long periods of time.

- Do not use HomePod near any heat sources such as radiators, heat registers, stoves, or other apparatus (including amplifiers) that produce heat. Do not place a naked flame such as a lighted candle or lit cigarette on or near HomePod.
- Protect the power cord from being walked on or pinched, particularly at plugs, convenience receptacles, and the point where it exits from HomePod.
- Only use attachments/accessories specified by Apple.
- Do not attempt to repair or service HomePod yourself. Refer all servicing to qualified service personnel. Servicing is required when HomePod has been damaged in any way, such as when the power cord or plug is damaged, liquid has been spilled or objects have fallen into HomePod, or when HomePod has been exposed to rain or moisture, does not operate normally, or has been dropped.
- During operation, speaker vibration could cause HomePod to move. Ensure that HomePod does not fall from its mounting surface. Do not hang the product by its power cord.
- HomePod has no on/off switch. Also, HomePod may appear to be off and disconnected from its power source when it is actually still connected and in standby. To disconnect it from power, unplug the power cord. Make sure the main plug of the power cord is always easily accessible. When connecting or disconnecting it, always hold the plug by its sides. Do not unplug by pulling the power cord. Keep fingers away from the metal part of the plug.

- HomePod is for indoor use only.
- HomePod may be damaged by improper storage or handling. Be careful not to drop it when it is being transported.

Medical Device Interference

HomePod contains a radio and other components that emit electromagnetic fields. HomePod also contains magnets. These electromagnetic fields and magnets may interfere with pacemakers, defibrillators, or other medical devices. Maintain a safe distance of separation between your medical device and HomePod. Consult your physician and medical device manufacturer for information specific to your medical device. Stop using HomePod if you suspect it is interfering with your pacemaker, defibrillator, or any other medical device.

Avoid Hearing Damage

Listening to sound at high volumes may permanently damage your hearing. Background noise, as well as continued exposure to high volume levels, can make sounds seem quieter than they actually are. For more information about hearing loss, see www.apple.com/sound.
