

Best Buy Statement Opposing Discrimination

Best Buy doesn't tolerate discrimination, period. We support workplace fairness and equal rights for all and value a diverse and inclusive environment for all of our employees and customers. We oppose initiatives that allow businesses and other entities to discriminate or deny services based on characteristics such as age, race, ethnicity, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, disability or any other characteristic protected by law.

Revision History: Last updated April 29, 2016