

Methods of Monitoring
the Implementation of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities with Reference to Indicators

Anna Lawson

Centre for European Law and Legal Studies
and Centre for Disability Studies

University of Leeds

The Monitoring Requirement

- Article 31
- Article 33(2)
- Article 35

Underlying Principles

- Involvement
Articles 4 and 33(3)
- Comparability
Over time
Between disabled and non-disabled people
Between countries
- Intersectionality

Issues of Definition and Measurement

- Disabled People

- Article 1
- Impairment / functional limitation
- Self-reporting

- Disabling Barriers

- Physical environment
- Information
- Attitudes
- Enabling support

Examples of International Disability Rights Monitoring

Global Survey on Government Action on the Implementation of the Standard Rules

International Disability Rights Monitor Project

Disability Rights Promotion International Project

Mental Disability Advocacy Centre :
Guardianship Project

Types of Indicator

Indicators measuring the adoption / existence of relevant legal and policy measures

Indicators measuring the extent of the disability gap

Indicators measuring experience, perception and attitude

Methods of Monitoring
the Implementation of the Convention on the
Rights of Persons with Disabilities
with Reference to Indicators

Anna Lawson

Centre for European Law and Legal Studies
and Centre for Disability Studies

University of Leeds
