DECISIONS

COMMISSION DECISION (EU, Euratom) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017

on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 249 thereof,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Atomic Energy Community,

Whereas:

- (1) The Commission's communication and information systems are an integral part of the functioning of the Commission and IT security incidents can have a serious impact on the Commission's operations as well as on third parties, including individuals, businesses and Member States.
- (2) There are many threats that can harm the confidentiality, integrity or availability of the Commission's communication and information systems and of the information processed therein. These threats include accidents, errors, deliberate attacks and natural events, and need to be recognised as operational risks.
- (3) Communication and information systems need to be provided with a level of protection commensurate with the likelihood, impact and nature of the risks to which they are exposed.
- (4) IT security in the Commission should ensure that the Commission's CISs protect the information they process and they function as they need to, when they need to, under the control of legitimate users.
- (5) The IT security policy of the Commission should be implemented in a manner which is consistent with the policies on security in the Commission.
- (6) The Security Directorate of the Directorate-General for Human Resources and Security has the general responsibility for security in the Commission under the authority and responsibility of the Member of the Commission responsible for security.
- (7) The Commission's approach should take into account EU policy initiatives and legislation on network and information security, industry standards and good practices, to comply with all relevant legislation and to allow interoperability and compatibility.
- (8) Appropriate measures should be developed and implemented by the Commission departments responsible for communication and information systems and IT security measures for protecting communication and information systems should be coordinated across the Commission to ensure efficiency and effectiveness.
- (9) Rules and procedures for access to information in the context of IT security, including IT security incident handling, should be proportionate to the threat to the Commission or its staff and compliant with the principles laid down in Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council (¹), on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data and taking account of the principle of professional secrecy, as provided in Article 339 of the TFEU.

⁽¹) Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (OJ L 8, 12.1.2001, p. 1).

- The policies and rules for communication and information systems processing EU classified information (EUCI), sensitive non-classified information, and unclassified information are to be fully in line with Commission Decisions (EU, Euratom) 2015/443 (1) and (EU, Euratom) 2015/444 (2).
- There is a need for the Commission to review and update the provisions on the security of communication and information systems used by the Commission.
- The Commission Decision C(2006) 3602 should therefore be repealed, (12)

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

Subject matter and scope

- This decision applies to all communication and information systems (CISs) which are owned, procured, managed or operated by or on behalf of the Commission and all usage of those CISs by the Commission.
- This decision sets out the basic principles, objectives, organisation and responsibilities regarding the security of those CISs, and in particular for Commission departments owning, procuring, managing or operating CISs and including CISs provided by an internal IT service provider. When a CIS is provided, owned, managed or operated by an external party on the basis of a bilateral agreement or contract with the Commission, the terms of the agreement or contract shall comply with this decision.
- This decision applies to all Commission departments and Executive Agencies. When a Commission CIS is used by other bodies and institutions on the basis of a bilateral agreement with the Commission, the terms of the agreement shall comply with this decision.
