1. Name, venue, date and organizer of the activity:

Procession of the Holy Blood, Bruges, Belgium
9th of May 2013
Noble Brotherhood of the Holy Blood

2. What is the particular relevance of the activity to purposes and objectives the 2003 Convention and its compliance with the principles of the Convention?

The Procession of the Holy Blood is a colourful pageant that dates back to the 13th century. The current procession has more than 1700 citizens performing stories from the Old Testament, the life of Jesus Christ and the history of the relic of the Holy Blood in Bruges. For centuries, the procession has had an important function for the identity of the city and its inhabitants. The people of Bruges celebrate what is commonly known as 'the Finest day of Bruges' by participating or simply enjoying the procession. As the historic city centre of Bruges was recognized by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site in 2000; the procession is also a unique occasion on which the immovable, tangible and intangible heritage of Bruges blend together.
