B. Contribution of the organization to the implementation of the Convention at the national level (Chapter III of the Convention)¹

Distinguish between completed activities and ongoing activities. If you have not contributed, this should be indicated. Also describe any obstacles or difficulties that your organization may have encountered in such participation.

B.1. Describe your organization's participation in State efforts to develop and implement measures to strengthen institutional capacities for safeguarding intangible cultural heritage (ICH) (Article 13 and Operational Directive (OD) 154), e.g. in the drafting of ICH-related policies or legislation, in the establishment of national ICH committees or in other government-led processes.

Not to exceed 250 words

European Association of Folklore Festivals - EAFF is an international /umbrella/ organization operating in more than forty countries. It was founded in 2007 and unites federations, associations, institutions and individuals active in the field of folklore, research, education, travel and culture. All are involved in the protection and promotion of traditional arts and festivities. EAFF operates mainly at European level and maintains close relations with partners in Africa (eg Morocco, Egypt,...), Latin America (eg Brazil, Mexico,...), Asia (eg India,

¹. In case your organization operates in several States, please indicate clearly which State or States are concerned by your answers when filling in parts B, C and E.

Iran, Indonesia, South Korea, China, Uzbekistan, Mongolia...). However, on the one hand, the Association supports and encourages its members to support the efforts of their countries in preserving the ICH, as well as the assimilation of its values by a wide range of communities, groups and individuals, and in particular young people.

On the other hand, the EAFF is involved, through its individual representatives, in the efforts of countries in drafting policies or legislation related to ICH. For example, in Bulgaria this is the case with the active participation of the head of the EAFF expert council - Prof. Mila Santova in an expert group appointed by the Minister of Culture, currently developing the complete documentation on national policies for safeguarding of ICH, as well as an inventory of the Bulgarian National list of the ICH.

The Association has registered 522 festival members and 386 individual and collective members. Last but not least, the Association encourages its members to be actively involved in the preparation of application files for inclusion in the national and world lists of elements of the ICH in cooperation with the national authorities.

B.2. Describe your organization's cooperation with competent governmental bodies for the safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage (Article 13), including existing institutions for training on and the documentation of ICH (OD 154).

Not to exceed 250 words

Individual and institutional members of the EAFF work with government authorities to safeguard the intangible cultural heritage in their own countries and are encouraged to do so by the EAFF. EAFF and the Institute of Mathematics and Informatics at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences organize an annual conference Cultural Historical Heritage: Preservation, Presentation, Digitization. EAFF and the St. Petersburg State Institute of Culture organize a scientific conference "Living Cultural Heritage".

In a systematic way the implementation of the cooperation can be presented as follows:

- with the Ministries of Culture (eg in Bulgaria the Chairman of the EAFF Expert Council is a member of the National Council for Intangible Cultural Heritage under the Minister of Culture, and over the years he has also been its Chairman)

- with the Regional Center for Intangible Cultural Heritage in Southeast Europe, cat. 2 under the auspices of UNESCO (EAFF President is a member of the Executive board and the General Assembly of the Center 2)

- with the scientific institutions working on the issues of ICH in the respective countries, respectively through common programs, training of experts (through the possibilities of PhD training), preparation and implementation of scientific forums, seminars and other forms of specialized dialogue.

Favourable situation provides the fact that EAFF has and maintains direct contact with the bearers, through events organized by the Association and other forms of communication, which is a direct opportunity to share the values proclaimed by the 2003 Convention and supports the actions of governments in this attitude.

B.3. Describe your organization's involvement in or contribution to the drafting of the State's Periodic Report (OD 152).

Not to exceed 250 words

Not applicable. The European Association of Folklore Festivals - EAFF is an international organization and does not participate directly in the periodic reports of the States parties. However, some of its activities and the participation of its members are taken into account in the preparation of national reports.

B.4. Describe your organization's participation in the preparation of nominations to the Urgent Safeguarding List or Representative List, requests for International Assistance or proposals of Good Safeguarding Practices.

Not to exceed 250 words

The European Association of Folklore Festivals - EAFF, as an organization, has not participated in the preparation of nominations in the Representative List, Urgent Safeguarding List and has not prepared a request for International assistance. Individual EAFF members are involved in the preparation of documents for inclusion in the Representative List. For example, Bulgaria, which has a total of 4 national and 1 international inscriptions of elements in the Representative List, as well as 2 inscriptions in the Register of Good Safeguarding Practices or a total of 7 inscriptions, 3 of the inscriptions were made with files prepared by the Head of the International Council of ICH experts of the Association.

B.5. Describe your organization's participation in the identification, definition (Article 11.b) and inventorying of ICH (Article 12, OD 80 and OD 153). Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

Members of the European Association of Folklore Festivals – EAFF have participated in the identification, definition and inventorying of ICH see B.1., B.4., E.3.

B.6. Describe your organization's participation in other safeguarding measures, including those referred to in Article 13 and OD 153, aimed at:

- a. promoting the function of ICH in society;
- b. fostering scientific, technical and artistic studies with a view to effective safeguarding;
- c. facilitating, to the extent possible, access to information relating to ICH while respecting customary practices governing access to specific aspects of it.

Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals when participating in such measures.

Not to exceed 250 words

The main activity of the European Association of Folklore Festivals - EAFF is aimed at promoting traditional performing arts, customs, rituals and celebrations and organizing events. For this purpose, the Association is in constant contact with communities, groups, individuals and their representatives. Contacts are made in which the information flows on several levels, the most important of which are:

- from the bearers - the knowledge about the richness of forms of ICH in the member countries of the Association is enriched
- from the Association - an information fund is formed and accumulated by documenting and providing for use to a wide range of users (carriers, researchers, representatives of government agencies, etc.).

The organized annually from the members of the Association of over 500 folklore festivals, conferences and seminars contributes to the good visibility of the elements of ICH. By motivating the study, practice and presentation of the elements to a large audience, EAFF helps to carry out the transmission to future generations, which is the basis for the preservation of ICH. The use of social networks for direct access, as well as television and streaming video platforms favors the involvement of the younger generation. Through the news section of the electronic platform of EAFF, organization contributes to timely informing and inclusion in the events, as well as awareness of the achieved results. EAFF publishes a magazine, a weekly bulletin, an online platform "Online stage", a platform for holding online competitions with public voting and voting by the jury. EAFF's information internet channels enjoy over 1 million visitors annually.

B.7. Describe your organization's involvement in measures to ensure greater recognition of, respect for and enhancement of ICH, in particular those referred to in Article 14, ODs 105 to 109 and OD 155:

- a. educational, awareness-raising and information programmes aimed at the general public, in particular young people;
- b. educational and training programmes within the communities and groups concerned;
- c. capacity-building activities for the safeguarding of ICH;
- d. non-formal means of transmitting knowledge;
- e. education for the protection of natural spaces and places of memory whose existence is necessary for expressing ICH.

Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals when participating in such measures.

Not to exceed 250 words

The structure of EAFF is oriented towards the promotion and holding of folklore festivals with international participation. EAFF tolerates the organization of special meetings within the festival programs in order for participants to get acquainted, to share and study different elements of national cultures. In this way it supports the understanding and tolerance between different cultures not only during the stage performances in front of an audience, but also between the participants in the respective festival.

On average, more than 150,000 participants, holders of intangible cultural heritage, perform on the stages of the folklore festivals organized by the EAFF members every year. In the process of preparation for participation in various festivals by organized groups for recreation of traditional songs, dances and customs, there are many cases when forgotten and not practiced customs, celebrations or traditional songs and dances are revived for a new life. This line of thought supports the research activities of the local population and research institutes related to the identification, implementation of transmission activities such as training, documentation of their skills and knowledge and promotion of ICH.

On the web-based platform of EAFF is built a specialized section UNESCO, connection with E-knowledge centre, Live streams Archives - archives of live broadcasting of festival programs, streaming platform, TV channel. EAFF encourages video recording of the current state of the elements of the ICH. In cooperation with television channels, over 7,000 hours of festival performances, ethnographic films have been broadcasted and archived, and over 2,000 weekly folklore television programs have been produced and broadcasted.
