B. Contribution of the organization to the implementation of the Convention at the national and international levels (Chapter III and Article 19 of the Convention, paragraph 156 of the Operational Directives)¹

Distinguish between completed activities and ongoing activities contributing to the eight thematic areas of the Convention's Overall Results Framework², as well as to the preparation of periodic reports, nominations, proposals and requests under the Convention's international cooperation mechanisms. If you have not contributed, this should be indicated. Also describe any obstacles or difficulties that your organization may have encountered in such participation.

B.1. Describe your organization's contribution to strengthening institutional and human capacities for safeguarding intangible cultural heritage.

Not to exceed 250 words

Na Píobairí Uilleann (NPU) is a membership-based organisation formed by uilleann pipers in 1968. The aims of the organisation are to promote the playing and making of uilleann pipes and traditional Irish music in general. These aims align with safeguarding Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH). We provide regular tuition in uilleann piping and uilleann pipe making. Our publications programme shares information on all aspects of the practices associated with the uilleann pipes. We publish a journal four times a year and monthly newsletters for members and the public, we

1. In case your organization operates in several States, please indicate clearly which State or States are concerned by your answers where appropriate.
2. For further information on the Overall Results Framework, please refer to the Chapter 8 of the Basic Texts of the 2003 Convention for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage: <https://ich.unesco.org/en/basic-texts-00503> have a range of publications that include audio recordings and books. We regularly update our online archive with videos of performances and pipe making tuition content. We regularly provide support to uilleann piping groups in Ireland and internationally. We work with the relevant Irish Government departments to safeguard ICH.

B.2. Describe your organization's participation in activities related to the transmission of and education for intangible cultural heritage. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

NPU artistic programmes support the transmission of all aspects of the practice of uilleann piping. We support uilleann pipers at all stages of their development, from their introduction to the instrument (via "Try the Pipes" opportunities and our "Pipes on Loan" initiative), through to regular tuition, mentoring and providing educational resources. We provide regular tuition at 30 locations throughout the island of Ireland on a regular basis. We have a dedicated instrument making training centre "PipeCraft" where we provide tuition in instrument making. We work with individuals and a range of groups to provide education and transmit cultural practices.

B.3. Describe your organization's participation in the inventorying and research of intangible cultural heritage. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

NPU regularly publishes research into cultural practices and the history of cultural practice via our newsletter, An Fíobaire and our audio and print publications. We have provided informal assistance to individuals and other Irish communities of practice who are interested in learning more about intangible cultural heritage. We cooperate with the Irish Government's Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media to promote intangible cultural heritage.

B.4. Describe your organization's participation in developing policies, as well as legal and administrative measures, for safeguarding intangible cultural heritage. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

NPU works with the Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media Expert Advisory Committee on ICH. In late 2022, NPU provided advice on uilleann pipes to the Department to support the introduction of financial measures to encourage uilleann pipe making in Ireland.

B.5. Describe your organization's participation in promoting the role of intangible cultural heritage and its safeguarding in society. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

The work of NPU promotes the role of ICH and its safeguarding in society. We provide opportunities for people to experience uilleann piping and Irish harp playing at our regular public events. Our instrument making training centre, PipeCraft provides tuition in uilleann pipe and Irish harp making.

B.6. Describe your organization's participation in raising awareness about intangible cultural heritage. Explain, in particular, how your organization cooperates with communities, groups and, where relevant, individuals.

Not to exceed 250 words

NPU raises awareness about ICH in a variety of ways. We have participated in online and public events to celebrate intangible cultural heritage in Ireland. We respond to media requests for information on intangible cultural heritage. All of our publicity materials refer to intangible cultural heritage.

B.7. Describe your organization's participation in facilitating the engagement of communities, groups and individuals, as well as other stakeholders, for safeguarding intangible cultural heritage.

Not to exceed 250 words

NPU provides opportunities to all to participate in uilleann piping and Irish traditional music. We regularly hold "Try the Pipes" events, we provide instruments on loan through our "Pipes on Loan" initiative. We provide regular tuition in 30 locations around Ireland. We provide regular instrument making training at PipeCraft. We hold regular public performances of Irish traditional music. All of our programmes and events are open to anyone who is interested. We commit resources to regular public engagement via our website and social media to promote uilleann piping and traditional Irish music.

B.8. Describe your organization's engagement in cooperation at the bilateral, subregional, regional or international levels for the implementation of the Convention, including initiatives such as the exchange of information and experience, and other joint initiatives.

Not to exceed 250 words

We are always keen to engage in opportunities to support the implementation of the Convention. For example, in October 2022, we participated in a meeting organised by the Irish Government to discuss ICH with Norwegian Crafts Institute. We are currently cooperating with Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA) on an event in August 2023 to celebrate the Irish elements of ICH inscribed on the UNESCO Representative List.

B.9. Describe your organization's involvement in or contribution to the drafting of the national Periodic Report on the implementation of the Convention.

Not to exceed 250 words

NPU has provided detailed information on the organisation's activities for inclusion in the Irish Periodic Report.

B.10. Describe your organization's participation in the preparation of nominations to the Urgent Safeguarding List or Representative List, requests for International Assistance or proposals of Good Safeguarding Practices.

Not to exceed 250 words

NPU works with the Irish Government's Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media. The Department developed Ireland's National Inventory of Intangible Cultural Heritage.
