

Kanagawa Kenmin Hall Open Theatre 2023

Saturday, August 19, 2023 at Kanagawa Kenmin Hall, Main Hall + Small Hall

Music, stage, art and other events await you!

Bring the whole family and enjoy summer at Kanagawa Kenmin Hall.

Main Hall

Dance + Play “Marie’s Dream”

A stage adaptation of the original fairy tale of "The Nutcracker," one of Tchaikovsky's three most beloved ballets in the world. The fairy tale "The Nutcracker and the Mouse King" is a story that the German writer Hoffmann told to his best friend's youngest daughter "Marie" as a Christmas gift. This fantastic tale is presented as a lively play with dances, chants, and songs.

If you open your eyes, the world will always be open to you !

14:00 (Doors open at 13:30)

Performance time scheduled for 70 minutes (no intermission)

Admission:

¥1,000 for ages 3 to junior high school students

¥2,000 for high school students and above

¥2,500 for 1 child and 1 adult

Reserved seating.

Small Hall

Let's compare the difference between organ and piano

The concert, which was well received last year, returns again this year!

The organ and the piano are completely different instruments, even though they are the same keyboard instrument. So, what are the differences between them? Let's have a look and listen! The concert is a family concert that can be enjoyed by both children and adults! After the concert, you can take a close-up look at the pipe organ on the stage!

Program

P. I. Tchaikovsky: “March” from the Nutcracker Suite

J.S. Bach: Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme

A. Matsuka: Twinkle Twinkle Little Star and others

NAKATA Keiko, Organ (Advisor to the Kanagawa Kenmin Hall)

MATSUOKA Asahi, Piano and arrangement

11:00 (Doors open at 10:30)

Scheduled performance time of 45 minutes, followed by a 15-minute on-stage tour of the organ

Admission:

Free of charge (ticket required) for elementary school students and younger

¥500 for Junior high school students and older

Reserved seating.

There are many other events as well.

For more details, please visit our website [in Japanese].

We provide following supports to help everyone enjoy the stage.

Main Hall *Reservation required

●Seats for wheelchair users / seats that can be accompanied by assistance dogs are available.
To make a reservation, please call 0570-015-415 or visit the ticket counter at the hall.

●Hearing loop accessible seats are available.

For the hearing impaired, performance scripts are available for loan in advance. The scripts can be viewed at the seats during the performance.

(Deadline for pre-registration is August 1.)

To make a reservation, mail: jigyou1ka@kanagawa-af.org

●Seats with portable tablets which provide subtitles for the hearing impaired and foreigners (Japanese, easy Japanese, English and Chinese (AI translation) are available.

*Subtitles with sound information will be displayed.

To make a reservation, mail: jigyou1ka@kanagawa-af.org

Small Hall *Reservation required

●Seats for wheelchair users / seats that can be accompanied by assistance dogs are available.
To make a reservation, please call 0570-015-415 or visit the ticket counter at the hall.

Persons with disabilities

-Accessible toilets are available.

-Wheelchairs are available for use in the hall.

Childcare service is available from the opening time of each performance until the end of the performance (¥2,000 per child).

Please note, however, that you are required to apply in advance (before August 10) to the following child-care service provider:

<Mothers> tel. 0120-788-222 (10:00~12:00/13:00~17:00 on weekdays)

Restrooms with diaper changing stations and baby keepers, stroller storage, and nursing areas are available.

TICKET

-Please visit the reservation counter at Kanagawa Kenmin Hall

-Reservation: 0570-015-415 (10:00-18:00).

-<https://www.kanagawa-arts.or.jp/tc> [English available]

To Our Guests and Visitors.

Please understand that the program and order of the performances are subject to change.

Kanagawa Kenmin Hall

TEL 045-662-5901

3-1 Yamashita-cho, Naka Ward, Yokohama, Kanagawa Prefecture, 231-0023