Jump into Maine Public's My ME Place fun!

ALL THIS SUMMER Maine Public has been seeking recommendations for places to visit and explore in Maine. It's true! We want to hear from you about your favorite Maine destinations. Hundreds of recommendations have come in already and we've posted many of them on our website, mainepublic.org, already.

What have we heard so far? Many of the already well-known spots have been submitted, including the Coastal Maine Botanical Gardens (a wonderful picture of the Botanical Gardens is adorning the cover of this issue), the Eastern Promenade in Portland, York Beach in York, the Aroostook National Wildlife Refuge in Limestone, Pineland Farms in New Gloucester, Blueberry Mountain in Stow, and, of course, Acadia National Park in Bar Harbor. But then others that may not be quite so well-known have trickled in, including Dew Haven in Mount Vernon, Shaw's Fish and Lobster Wharf in New Harbor, Pettengill Farm in Freeport, Hirundo Wildlife Refuge in Old Town, Wild River near Evans Notch in Hastings, Haystack Mountain in Liberty, Gulf Hagas in Brownville, and Hendricks Head Lighthouse in Southport (bottom photo) to mention just a few.

So how can you participate and add your voice to this fun compilation? Download the free Maine Public VoxPop App (from the Apple App Store or Google Play) and follow the simple prompts. Then, in a 45-second or less soundbite, share the name of your favorite place, the town it's in, and why your place is a must-go destination!

You can also peruse all the entries posted on Maine Public's Adventure Map found on our website, mainepublic.org, under our Community tab.

Hear what people are saying about spots across Maine and plan to visit ones that pique your interest! And to help in some of those explorations, we have two E-Bikes compliments of Gorham Bike and Ski up for grabs. Every recommendation that comes over our VoxPop App counts as an entry into a drawing for both bikes. We are wrapping up this initiative in September, so don't delay!

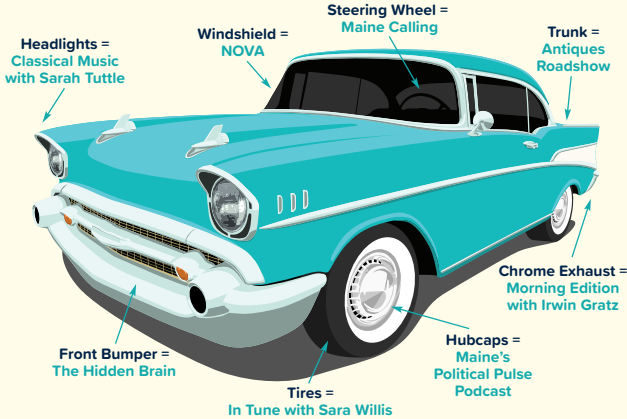

My ME Place is made possible through the generous support of major sponsor the Maine Office of Tourism and our presenting sponsors, The Nature Conservancy in Maine and Gorham Bike and Ski. Special thanks to the Maine Turnpike Authority for their help with this campaign.

On the cover and above: Coastal Maine Botanical Gardens in Boothbay. ■

Nick Schifrin, Award-winning PBS News Hour Correspondent to Speak in Camden

Nick Schifrin's workplace is often a war zone. He has covered wars in Ukraine, in Gaza, Syria, Afghanistan and more. He was so close to the action that during one live report from Gaza, explosions muffled his words. At home, his mother was watching, and she texted him, "You cannot go before I do."

Schifrin, PBS News Hour's award-winning Foreign Affairs and Defense Correspondent, will share his experiences in An Evening with Nick Schifrin – Reporting on War in the 21st Century, at the Camden Opera House on August 24, sponsored by the Camden Conference in partnership with Maine Public.

Though war reporting can leave journalists disillusioned and cynical, one of Nick Schifrin's guiding qualities is empathy, which, he said, supplies the purpose that inspires him to continue his work. "We must not only voice empathy, but also figure out which questions to ask," Schifrin told an audience of university students last year. In Ukraine, he asked a grieving mother to "tell me about your son." Schifrin said he has often cried during interviews.

From 2008-2012, Schifrin served as the ABC News correspondent in Afghanistan and Pakistan. In 2011, he was one of the first journalists to arrive in Abbottabad, Pakistan, after Osama bin Laden's death and delivered one of the year's biggest exclusives – the first video from inside bin Laden's compound. His reporting helped ABC News win an Edward R. Murrow award for its bin Laden coverage.

Prior to joining PBS News Hour, Schifrin was Al Jazeera America's Middle East correspondent. He won an Overseas Press Club award for his Gaza coverage and a National Headliners Award for his Ukraine coverage.

The PBS News Hour series "Inside Putin's Russia," led by Schifrin, won a 2017 Peabody Award and the National Press Club's Edwin M. Hood Award for Diplomatic Correspondence. In November 2020, Schifrin received the American Academy of Diplomacy's Arthur Ross Media Award for Distinguished Reporting and Analysis of Foreign Affairs.

Schifrin is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and a board member of the Overseas Press Club Foundation. He has a bachelor's degree from Columbia University and a Master of International Public Policy degree from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS).

▶ An Evening with Nick Schifrin – Reporting on War in the 21st Century, will be at the Camden Opera House on August 24, at 7:30 p.m. For tickets and information, visit CamdenConference.org. ■

FREE(port) SPEECH August 27th event featuring Martin Fletcher, Aaron David Miller, and Jackie Northam

Maine Public is very pleased to be a Media Sponsor of an upcoming FREE(port) SPEECH event taking place on August 27 from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Freeport Performing Arts Center in Freeport. In the Eye of the Storm: First Hand Impressions of the Path to Peace in the Israel-Palestine Conflict will include a thoughtful discussion between Martin Fletcher, former NBC News Tel Aviv Bureau Chief and now award-winning author, and Aaron David Miller, an American Middle East analyst, author, and negotiator at the State Department. Moderated by NPR's International Affairs Correspondent, Jackie Northam, the participants will seek to answer the critical question "can there be peace in the Middle East in our lifetimes?"

Proceeds from the event will benefit Seeds of Peace. Enjoy music by Shaina Graff and her ensemble, Shaina's Strings, for 30 minutes before the discussion. For more information about this experience and to order tickets, visit mainepublic.org and click on Community. Maine Public members do receive a special ticket discount to this talk. ■

Fauna

Monday, August 5, 10:00 pm

A new film on POV explores the relationship between humans, animals, and science in post-pandemic times. On the outskirts of Barcelona, an aging shepherd holds onto ancestral traditions in his dying trade. Across the valley sits a sterile, futuristic facility tasked with animal testing in pursuit of a COVID-19 vaccine. The laboratory looms over the shepherd's grazing grounds, involuntarily drawing the two into a stark comparison. Scenes of animals being led through sterile hallways are striking against the view out the window of the shepherd and his flock navigating rich and vast forests.

Vienna Philharmonic
Summer Night Concert

Friday, August 23, 9:00 pm

A long-standing annual event, Great Performances presents the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra's concert from Vienna's Schönbrunn Palace Gardens. Focusing on popular works from the 19th and 20th centuries that highlight Europe's rich musical heritage, the concert celebrates the bicentennial of distinguished Czech composer Bedrich Smetana with three musical compositions. The orchestra is led for the second time by Andris Nelsons, Music Director of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, with internationally acclaimed soprano Lise Davidsen

(pictured) as guest soloist, who performs arias from Richard Wagner's "Tannhäuser" and Giuseppe Verdi's "La forza del destino." (Credit: James Hole.)

Rick Steves Iceland

Monday, August 26, 9:00 pm; Thursday, August 29, 10:00 pm

Travel guru Rick Steves introduces viewers to Iceland's majestic landscapes and hardy culture. In Reykjavik, a world capital with a small-town feel, Rick tours the endearing sights, browses for sweaters, tastes fermented shark, learns

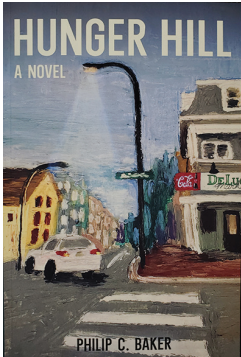

Icelandic insights with a local, and then finally takes a dip in a thermal swimming pool. The journey leads through a world of glaciers and fjords to the geothermal hotspot of Lake Mavatn, before concluding with a spin around scenic Snaefellsnes Peninsula. Along the way, Rick visits a few slice-of-Icelandic-life museums, sod-roofed settlements, steaming volcanoes, and even goes whale watching. ■

BOOK CLUB
ALL BOOKS CONSIDERED

August's Book Club Selection:
Hunger Hill by Philip Baker

The 2024 edition of our Maine Public Book Club is approaching the home stretch with some exceptional titles ahead. Leading off the final run is Hunger Hill by Maine author Philip Baker. Baker's debut novel is a fast-paced crime drama set in a tight-knit Portland neighborhood full of some very memorable characters. It's a wonderfully gripping work. Grab a copy at any of our bookstore partners, including sponsor Bull Moose, and join our host Bill Nemitz on Thursday, August 29, at 7:00 p.m. for a conversation on YouTube and Facebook with the author.

If you haven't joined our book club, consider this an official invitation! By signing up, you'll receive periodic updates of book club events and be entered into a drawing for a one-year subscription to the digital edition of the AudioFile Magazine and a year's subscription to Décor Maine Magazine at every book club meeting. The club is free to join and is a wonderful way to fuel your passion for reading. Speaking of passion, a very warm thank you to Bull Moose and Coffee by Design for helping keep the Maine Public Book Club chugging along. Thanks! ■

at the Maine State Music Theatre

Theater and music lovers are in for a very special treat – two actually! – this August with the Maine State Music Theatre. Irving Berlin's White Christmas wraps up August 3 to be immediately followed up by Beautiful: The Carole King Musical running from August 7 to August 24.

In White Christmas, veterans Bob Wallace and Phil Davis had a successful song-and-dance act after World War II. With romance in mind, the two follow a duo of beautiful singing sisters en route to their Christmas show at a Vermont lodge, which happens to be owned by Bob and Phil's former army commander. With a dazzling score featuring well-known standards, including "Blue Skies," "I Love a Piano," "How Deep Is the Ocean," and the perennial title song, White Christmas is an uplifting, wholesome musical that will delight audiences of all ages.

Before she was hit-maker Carole King (pictured) – she was Carole Klein, a spunky, young songwriter from Brooklyn with a unique voice. From the chart-topping hits she wrote for the biggest acts in music to her own life-changing, trailblazing success with "Tapestry," Beautiful: The Carole King Musical takes you back to where it all began – and takes you on the ride of a lifetime.

► Go to msmt.org or give them a call at 207-725-8769 to order tickets! You can also visit Maine Public's website, mainepublic.org, to learn more about each show and watch a "Behind the Scenes" look at both programs with Maine State Music Theatre's Artistic Director Curt Dale Clark. Make a wonderful summer memory of your own and take in these shows at the Pickard Theater on Bowdoin's campus in Brunswick. (Credit: Jim McCrary.) ■

Common Ground Country Fair alert!

One of our favorite events is right around the corner and tickets are on sale as of August 1. That's right, the 48th annual Common Ground Country Fair is a month away! Maine Public is once again a media sponsor and will be smack dab in the middle of the action for the entire fair. Per usual, the event will be held at the Common Ground Education Center in Unity on September 20, 21, and 22. The Maine Organic Farmers and Gardeners Association's (MOFGA) annual celebration of rural living features 1,000-plus exhibitors and speakers, and emphasizes vibrant communities, sustainable living and local economies, while highlighting organic agriculture. Fair tickets and the entire schedule can be found on mofga.org. In case you are looking to become more involved, volunteer shifts are now available for the 2024 fair, and you can sign up for these on their website as well. We hope to see you there! ■

Whitman Brook

When Terry Dorman moved to Quechee, Vermont, in 1980, his plan didn't include rescuing an abandoned, 100-year-old apple orchard. His mind was on the farm he and his wife, Sara, were planning to build, an idea rooted in the loss of his family's land in Massachusetts decades earlier. But there it was – rows of gnarled, drooping trees in danger of being reclaimed by the forested hillside. He could have let the orchard stay abandoned, but he was compelled to recover it, tree by tree, out of a sense of rightness, out of a deep knowing that these trees had managed to survive decades of neglect and that was something to be respected. So, he began to experiment with restoration pruning and grafting and soon he was in the orchard in every season, in every kind of weather. The result is a hillside of apple trees and a community that cares for them, a space that couldn't have grown out of the soil of any other state.
