SHINING THE LIGHT ON A NONPROFIT'S FUTURE

SHINE TOGETHER NEEDED AN OUTSOURCED FINANCE TEAM ABLE TO ADAPT TO WHERE THE ORGANIZATION IS TODAY AND WHERE IT HOPES TO GO

CHALLENGE

Around the time of its 10-year anniversary, Shine (formerly known as Teen Success) hit a transitional phase. Acclimating to both a big rebranding and new leadership, the organization sought expertise for its future direction and better insights into its financial situation. All it had to go on was outdated information from a bookkeeping firm.

So, Shine sought a clearer view of its finances and occasional help with navigating its future as its mission grew to include more young mothers. Still, like any nonprofit that relies on the generosity of donors and the availability of grants, every penny counts. Shine needed its new accounting firm to be open to working within its budget constraints and to improve its reporting capabilities as Shine expanded its income streams beyond individual unrestricted donors.
