The customer shall fully cooperate with SDSI, its insurance company, and its legal counsel in defense of such claims.
2. If the use or sale of any of the goods is enjoined as a result of a claim, SDSI shall, at its option, either obtain on behalf of the customer a right of use for the goods, substitute an equivalent product reasonably acceptable to customer, or modify the goods such that the intellectual property right is not infringed. If SDSI is not able to do so, SDSI shall refund the customer the original purchase price of the goods.
3. 4. The indemnity contained in this §10 shall not cover any claims in which customer fails to provide SDSI with notice of the claim where such lack of notice prejudices the defense of the claim.

15. Contract Language, Partial Nullity and Written Form

1. If any provisions of these GTC are declared by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, the validity of the remaining provisions remains unaffected.
