The World Bank Group (WBG) Gender Strategy 2024-2030 is framed by the strategic vision of WBG President Ajay Banga, elaborated through the Strategic Engagement discussion with Executive Directors and WBG senior leadership. It has been jointly developed by the International Development Association (IDA), International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD), International Finance Corporation (IFC), and Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA). This is the culmination of two years of intensive internal and external engagement, starting with the yearlong Accelerate Equality campaign, followed by a year of informal dialogues and formal consultations.

The strategy also drew from a series of technical inputs including the World Bank Group Gender Thematic Policy Notes Series, the Gender Innovation Lab Federation Causal Evidence Series, the Retrospective on Gender-Based Violence Prevention and Response in World Bank Operations, Retrospective on Gender and Development and Retrospective of IFC's Implementation of the World Bank Group Gender Strategy.

It has been prepared under the direction of Hana Brixi (Global Director, Gender, WB) in collaboration with Nathalie Kouassi Akon Gabala (Director, Gender & Economic Inclusion, IFC), Mary Porter Peschka (Director of the Sustainability, Environmental, Social and Governance and Gender Solutions, IFC), Paul Barbour (Chief Strategy Officer, MIGA), Merli Margaret Baroudi (Director of Economics and Sustainability, MIGA), Kate Wallace (Sector Manager, Sustainability, Infrastructure and Manufacturing, Agriculture and Services) and Moritz Nebe (Sector Manager, Economics, MIGA).
