FÖRNUFTIG air purifier

Say hello to healthier air

As we spend more time indoors, the climate at home becomes an important factor for health and well-being. FÖRNUFTIG air purifier is the first product from our new product segment focusing on indoor climate.

The air purifier helps to create healthier air by filtering away gases and particles. These can be pollutants, chemicals, pollen, dust and odors. The combination of a Hepa 12 filter that cleans away particles and a carbon filter that removes gases gives you an advanced and efficient air-purifying solution.

Apart from the physical benefits, an air purifier can improve mental well-being too. Knowing that the air you breathe is safe and clean can have a calming effect.

Settings to your preference

FÖRNUFTIG has three different settings, which also correspond to different sound levels — the lowest being quiet enough for sleep. On speed level three, the approximate Clean Air Delivery Rate (CADR value) is 130m³/h.
