APPOINTMENT OF COUNSELORS

The eligibility criteria approved by the Canara Financial Advisory Trust in consultation with Canara Bank, for appointing personnel as Financial Counsellor to the Financial Literacy Centres is as under:

- The minimum qualification for Counsellor is Graduation.
- The applicant should have adequate banking knowledge. Retired Managers/Senior Managers of Banks/RRBs and candidates with qualification of MBA/MSW will be given preference. Managers/ Senior Managers, who have opted voluntary retirement are also eligible.
- Upper age limit of the applicant should not be more than 62 years. This is suggested to ensure that at the end of the three years contract, Counsellor's age does not cross 65 years.
- The contract period of the Financial Counsellor is generally not more than three years and in exceptional cases the same can be extended up to five years provided the work of the Counsellor is found to be good and has not completed sixty five years of age.
- The applicants should not have conducted financial irregularities including over due in loans, if any, availed by them.
- If any of the declarations made by the Financial Counsellor has been found to be false, the Trust can terminate the contract.
- The above requirements are in addition to the ones, which are included in the agreement.

Selection Procedure:

The selection will be based on short listing and interview.

Important:

Engagement of Financial Counsellor is for a period of three years from the date of reporting or the date of our letter, whichever is later. (This may be for lesser period if the candidate completes sixty five years before that).

Engagement is on contract basis and gets automatically terminated, unless the same is extended by the Trust. The contract can also be terminated by the Trust as well as Counsellor by giving a notice of 60 days. Managing Trustee is empowered to relax the notice period on case to case basis.
