Selling with PayPal

When you buy or sell goods or services, make any other commercial type of transaction, send or receive a charity donation or receive a payment when you “request money” using PayPal, we call that a “commercial transaction”.

For the listings of selling rates, please visit our PayPal Merchant Fees Page.

Sending and receiving money

When you send money (initiated from the “Friends and Family” tab of the “Send Money” flow) to, or receive money into your PayPal account from, friends and family without making an underlying commercial transaction (that is, the payment is not for the purchase of goods or services or for making any other commercial transaction), we call that a “personal transaction”.

The rates relating to personal transactions are set out below.

Sending domestic personal transactions

Funding Source	Rate
Existing PayPal Balance or if balance is automatically obtained from a bank account	No fee (when no currency conversion is involved)
If balance is automatically obtained from other funding sources sent in HKD currency	3.40% + Fixed Fee (when no currency conversion is involved)

Fees charged in different currencies for sending payments: We will collect the fee from balance in the currency in which the fee is payable.
