

Lawrence H. Guffey

Senior Managing Director, Private Equity The Blackstone Group
International Partners LLP, since 1991

Born: March 3, 1968

Lawrence H. Guffey is a Senior Managing Director in the Corporate Private Equity Group. Mr. Guffey is based in London, and leads Blackstone's media and communications investment activities. Mr. Guffey has led or co-led Blackstone's efforts in virtually all media and communications-related investments and has day-to-day responsibility for management of Blackstone Communications Advisors. Since joining Blackstone in 1991, Mr. Guffey has been involved in the execution of Blackstone's investments in Axtel, Bresnan Communications, Centennial Communications, Cine UK/UGC, Crowley Digital/Salmon PCS, CommNet Cellular, CTI Holdings, Deutsche Telekom iPCS, Grupo Iusacell, LiveWire and related follow-ons, New Skies, PaeTec, TDC, TWFanch-two, Universo Online, US Radio and the firm's distressed debt investments in Adelphia Communications, Kabel BW, Charter Communications, Kabelnetz NRW and Primacom.

Before joining Blackstone, Mr. Guffey worked in the Acquisitions Group at Trammell Crow Ventures, the principal investment arm of Trammell Crow Company. Mr. Guffey graduated magna cum laude from Rice University (1990), where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. Guffey is also a Director of the literary foundation Paris Review Foundation Inc., New York, and of both the main Board of Trustees and the Humanities Advisory Board at Rice University.

Member of Corporate Boards:

2000 to present Axtel S.A.B. de C.V., San Pedro Garza García, Mexico;
member of the Consejo de Administración (Board of Directors)

2006 to present Deutsche Telekom AG, Germany, member of the Supervisory Board

2006 to present TDC A/S, Copenhagen, Denmark; member of the Bestyrelsen (Board of Directors)

2006 to present The Paris Review Foundation, Inc., New York, United States, member of the Board of Directors

Life is for sharing.

