Permanent Mission of Jamaica
to the United Nations

New York, 12th January 2024

Sir/Madam,

Reference is made to the letter of the Co-Facilitators for the intergovernmental process for the Declaration on Future Generations, dated 20th December 2023, inviting the participation of the relevant stakeholders in the virtual informal consultations to be held on 15th and 16th January 2024.

In this regard, we would like to thank all stakeholders for their registration and keen interest in participating in the upcoming informal consultations. As previously mentioned, this series of stakeholder consultations will give all registered participants the opportunity to share good practices and suggestions on how to safeguard the interests of future generations. In addition, we also invite stakeholders to submit their written inputs for the preparation of the zero draft of the Declaration on Future Generations via our website by 11:59pm EST on 22nd January 2024.

These inputs will subsequently be made available to all Member States for consideration in the development of national positions that will also inform our preparation of the zero draft of the Declaration, in accordance with the roadmap outlined here.

We thank you again for your trust and cooperation as we work together to achieve a meaningful and transformative Declaration that safeguards the interests of future generations. We look forward to your active engagement.

With appreciation.

Yoka M.G. Brandt

Permanent Representative of the Kingdom of the Netherlands
to the United Nations
