

Transforming knowledge for Africa's future

Exhibition: call for photos

As part of the event, we are organizing a special exhibition to showcase the impactful projects and initiatives led by UNESCO Chairs and UNITWIN Networks, particularly those related to Africa. We believe that visual storytelling through photographs can powerfully convey the essence and impact of your work as UNESCO Chairs and UNITWIN Networks, working as bridge-builders between academia, public authorities, civil society and communities. We hope that the exhibition will inspire participants and foster greater collaboration.

All UNESCO Chairs and UNITWIN Networks are encouraged to contribute to this exhibition by submitting photographs via the dedicated platform that highlight your projects and initiatives. These photographs should capture the spirit of innovation, action community engagement, and positive change that your projects embody. They can feature:

- Community involvement and their stories
- Key project activities and milestones
- Youth engagement
- Any other elements that illustrate the work and its impacts

Submission Guidelines:

- Photo Format: High-resolution (at least 240 dpi, best if 300 dpi. To find out about the resolution, you can right-click on the photo, Properties->Details->Image horizontal/vertical resolution. JPEG or PNG files. They can be landscape or portrait, taken in the past 5 years.
- Copyright: Please ensure that you own the rights for the image or that you have the express permission of the copyright holder. This is the responsibility of the submitter and UNESCO will not be held responsible for misattribution.
- Caption or photo description: A sentence (up to 30 words) describing the scene of the photo, including the project name, location, date and the context of the image.
- Short text (up to 150 words) explaining the work of the UNESCO Chair /UNITWIN Network, including key achievements.
